Shown above is a floor pillow made up of 4 blocks along side a single block that measures 12 1/2" unfinished and 12" finished. Each 12" block is made up of 4 (6") mini blocks but throughout the supply list and the pattern a block is as seen above and is 12".

· Each block is made up of:

Twenty-four — scrappy 2" by 5" scrappy strips

Four—4" background squares

Additional fabric if you want to add borders. My floor pillow has a small 1" (finished) border all the way around.

Number of blocks needed for:

12" x 36" Table Runner (3 blocks)

24" x 24" Floor Pillow (4 blocks)

48" x 60" Lap Quilt (20 blocks)

60" x 72" Twin Quilt (30 blocks)

84 x 96" Queen Quilt (56 blocks)

108" x 108" Cal King Quilt (81 blocks)

Supplies above and beyond your regular sewing supplies:

6 1/2" square ruler (for squaring up your mini blocks) 12

1/2" square ruler (helpful but not necessary).

THE BOTTOM LINE.....BRING LOTS OF SCRAPS, SOME BACKGROUND FABRIC AND PLAN ON HAVNG FUN.
