A word from Our President

Hello

I am ready for fall and Pumpkin everything. If you have a great pumpkin recipe, feel free to pass it forward. I still like to cut up a fresh pumpkin, roast the pieces and make pies from the fresh pumpkin.

My daughter asked me where to get organic pumpkin puree. I had to remind her how easy it is.

We as a guild are doing well and looking forward to returning to our live meetings. Our first get together will be a Holiday Celebration. On December 1, 2021, we will have our usual Holiday entertainment. We are returning to the Elks, and they are excited to have us back. We will be following the CDC guidelines for meetings at that time. Right now, we must wear a mask to enter and move about, while seated we are free to unmask if we care to. These guidelines are subject to change, and we will simply follow the rules.

We will be collecting the Toys again, there will be a sign-up table for membership renewals, and a table for next year's workshops, and some baskets.

PLEASE DO NOT BRING ANY FABRICS, TRIMS, PATTERNS, OR MISCELANEOUS ITEMS AS DONATIONS TO THE GUILD. We will resume accepting those donations at a later date.

Our Facebook is still going strong with a lot of sharing and communication. Robin is winding down the Mystery quilts so you will have plenty of time to finish up any holiday sewing you might have. Philanthropy is doing fantastic, and the pillowcases and quilts you are bringing in are outstanding.

Have a great Fall y'all,

Christi

Sunshine & Shadows

Sunshine-none to report Shadows-

Our dear Britta Laski is having cataract surgery next week. She has the quick kind that came on suddenly and has lost vision in one eye

Linda Sackin has had back surgery and is in the hospital.

Mary O'Driscoll fell and fractured her hip. She has had a hip replacement. That means many weeks of recovering.

Please send prayers, cards, or phone calls to these ladies. We are hoping for full recoveries from all.

If you know of any guild member with a Sunshine or Shadow, please inform Christi Kolisnyk or Britta Laski.

& SEW and SHARE

Nov 11, 9 am-12 pm

$25 Enrollment Fee

Color, Contrast & Cohesion. These three C's can make or break your quilt! Learn to control them with practical exercises as you begin a simply pieced scrap quilt. Learn why color is the least important of the three C's; discover ways to unify diverse fabrics and wrap your mind around the way value and contrast work together to create a fabulous quilt. There are several layouts to try or create your own! Get comfortable with making decisions as you go, because that's what a scrap quilt requires. Once you begin to work in this way, you might not want to go back!

Round Robin

ROUND ROBIN LADIES

We will meet up again on October 6th for our 4th exchange. 10AM at the Elks Lodge. It's getting close and look forward to seeing you in October.

Patty Thompson, and Britta Laski

Special Events

Thank you for your participation and support in following along as we accomplished many quilt mysteries this year. However, the time has come to move on to bigger and better things. The original plan was to have 1 more mystery prior to the end of the year but as life is slowly returning to "normal" I think most of us have enough on our plate to keep us busy between now and the holidays, so there will not be a fall mystery.

Until another project comes along, I wish you all well and look forward to seeing you and your completed projects very soon.

Enjoy,

Robin Gallagher

PHILANTHROPY

October will be the last month for turning in your Philanthropy Quilt Challenge. We will be drawing names for the gifts to be given away at the November Drive Through. IF you only have the quilt top completed and it still needs batting, backing and quilting you may turn that in as is. It will be added to the quilts that are waiting for quilting, you're still eligible for a prize. The quilts that have been turned in are all amazing. It is amazing what talent our guild members have.

You are all to be congratulated on the amount of work you have done for philanthropy. So far this year we have given a total of 257 quilts away and 260 pillowcases. Orange Coast Medical Center has been added to the list for donations, of the Oncology Department. They were very glad to receive their first donation in September and were so impressed by the beautiful quilts.

Please come by the October Drive Though on Wednesday, October 6 between 10 and 12 at the Elks Lodge. There will be FREE fabric available again in October and November (small donations are accepted but not necessary). We have not had Philanthropy Sew Day and our fabric stash is overflowing. Hopefully, if all goes well we can start again next year. Details are being worked out.

Besides the FREE fabric there will be quilt kits, pillowcase kits, Birthday fat quarters, quilts that are ready for quilting and possibly a few that are ready for binding. The reason for also a few quilts ready for binding is we have to get them quilted first and we just don't have enough volunteers to do the quilting. If you would like to practice your quilting this is a great way. Most of the quilts are lap size and baby size, very few bed size. Thanks to all the volunteers that do the quilting it is very much appreciated.

We do have an abundance of fabric but not child friendly fabric for pillowcases. So a request for child friendly fabric (especially for boys) of at least 1 yard is going out. Due to the amount of pillowcases we give out the novelty children fabric goes very fast. Thanks for your help.

Hope to see you at the October Drive Through on Wednesday, October 6.
